To cite a poem found on Bartleby.com on Easybib.com, follow these steps:
1. On EasyBib, under “All 59 Options” choose “Cite a Chapter/Anthology in MLA”
2. Once on the “Cite a Chapter/Anthology in MLA” page, leave step one (“Search for Your Source”) blank.
3. In step two, choose “Website.”
4. For “Chapter/SectionTitle,” put the title of your poem.
5. For “Section Author,” put the poet’s name.
6. Now, at the end of your poem on Bartleby.com, click on “Bibliographic Record.”
7. Use the information given in the “Bibliographic Record” on Bartleby.com to fill out the remaining information for the poem on EasyBib.com.
8. Once all available information is filled out, click “Create Citation.”

To cite biographical information found on a website, follow these steps:
1. Cut and paste website URL into the “Cite a website by entering its URL or search for it” space on EasyBib.com and click “Cite It.”
2. Look at the information listed under “The source didn’t give us:” and click on “Continue.”
3. Peruse the source’s website closely to find any information left blank for the entry and enter that information if you can find it.
4. Once all available information is filled out, click “Create Citation.”

To cite your visual image found on a website, follow these steps:
1. On EasyBib, under “All 59 Options” choose “Digital Image.”
2. If the image has no title (but all works of art and many iconic images and political cartoons have titles – you just might have to do a little extra research), describe the image or the subject of the cartoon. Please keep your description brief. For instance, “Vulture watches starving child” is sufficient for the iconic picture or “Obamacare” is sufficient for the subject of a political cartoon.
3. Fill in all of the remaining information that you can find on the website and click “Create Citation.”

To cite your database articles, follow these steps:
1. Under the EasyBib tab on the LibGuide, click on “EasyBib Help Sheet” and follow the instructions for citing articles found in Gale Databases and in Galileo, which includes the Literary Reference Center (the LRC Database).
Citing a quote from a poem:

In “I Hear America Singing,” Whitman hears “the delicious singing of the mother, or of the young wife at work, / or of the girl sewing or washing...” and admires the enthusiasm with which the women accomplish their daily chores (lines 7-8).

In “I Hear America Singing,” the independence of women is brought vividly to life through the description of “the delicious singing of the mother, or the young wife at work, / or of the girl sewing or washing...” (Whitman lines 7-8).

Citing a biographical article found in a database article or on a website:

Use the author’s name or authors’ names.
   Example: In her later years, Dickinson “rarely left the upper story of her home” (Crumbley).

If no author is given, use the title of the article.
   Example: In her later years, Dickinson “rarely left the upper story of her home” (“Emily Dickinson’s Life”).
